Aaron William Aushawn Black 1996 - 2017

Aaron William Aushawn Black, 20, of Huntington, WV went to be with the Lord on Sunday, September 3, 2017. He is the son of Aaron Monzelle Black and Leda Keonne McClure (Ray Robinson). Preceding him in death are fraternal grandmother Marcella Black of Greenup, KY and maternal grandmother Alice Marcella Garrett of Huntington, WV. Aaron leaves behind his grandfather William Douglas Garrett; siblings Airrye Black, Amelia and Amarie Black. Aaron leaves a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, and friends but most of all he leaves with us his friend, first love, and hero Sydney Rice. Aaron attended school in Parkersburg, WV but finished his senior year at Greenup County High School in Greenup, Kentucky. He was currently enrolled at the Huntington Junior Business College in Huntington, WV. He was very big on school and sports. He kept honor roll and loved to play football and basketball. He was a caretaker, he had a love for animals, nature, and adventure. Aaron was very family oriented. To know him is to know love. That love he had made a tremendous impact on everyone. Funeral service will be conducted 12 noon Thursday, September 14, 2017 at 16th Street Baptist Church, Huntington, WV. Burial will follow in Riverview Cemetery, Greenup, KY. Visitation will be held one hour prior to the service at the church. Condolences may be expressed to the family at www.timeformemory.com/hall or ehallfuneralhome.com.
