The Cole Family posted:

We are very sorry for your loss. Please rest assured that your friends and family want to be there to support you during this time of need. Like it says at Proverbs 17:17, "A true friend is loving at all times, and is a brother who is born during times of distress." For additional comfort, please continue to throw your anxiety on God because He does care for you (1 Peter 5:7). May your loving memories bring you a smile during this difficult time. Your family has our sincerest condolences.
