Jennifer was one of a kind. She was truly one of the kindest people I've ever met, and she enjoyed life like no one I knew. We took two trips out west together in the Cessna. Our favorite was our trip to Colorado Springs. Years after that trip, we would laugh about some of encounters that we had as if they just happened. Thanks, Jennifer for being my good friend. I love you. Even if we are not related, you will always be my sister. Rest in peace, Dear.
