Robin was my inspiration and strength. Kidney disease is a horrible trial for the person and all who love them. Robin handled this every day like a pro and was upbeat. Heaven gained a sweet angel but left a big hole in a lot of hearts. No more pain no more tears. Sing for Jesus, Robin.

Robin was my very first friend in elementary school. She was taller than I was. We sat on the bus together every day. I thought she was so confident when I was so unsure. She was one of my first peer role models at a time when children weren't taught a lot about needing role models. I know her friendship helped shape the person I became. I will continue to pray for her family and be thankful for Robin's influence in my life.
