Tiffany I am so sorry for your loss. I will never forget your mom at every softball game. We could always hear her cheering and letting the ump know if he made a bad call. : ) I can remember your mom and Janet sitting together at games and Carrie and I always said we hoped we would stay as close as they were. She was truly a great person who brought a smile to people.

Tiffany, I am so very sorry. I remember your mom from years ago when you and my daughter, Andrea, played softball as little girls. What a sweet and loving person she was. I also interacted with her when she worked for the Sewer System. Again, please know she will be remembered.
