Kevin Koyn lit a candle in honor of Robert.

Gary - I remember one of the first visits your mom and dad came to St. Louis to stay with you after we met. You were working on your yellow truck (Tweety) and your dad was helping. You were having difficulties taking off one of the parts from the brakes. Your dad was so excited to get his hands dirty, so much so he could not contain himself and slide out of his chair. At first we were shocked and worried he had hurt himself, but the laughter and smile on your dads face was priceless. I really wish I was able to capture a picture. He was good and as happy as can be!! This is one of my favorite memories of your dad. He just wanted to help his son. This moment impacted me in a way I will never forget. He was so proud of the man you became and I know he is going to be watching down on you as a guardian angel until you meet again. I wish I could be there in person with you and your mom, but rest assured that your St. Louis 'Family' of Friends are sending hugs and prayers to Ohio. We all love you! Kevin Koyn

Sue Liszewski lit a candle in honor of Robert.

Gary - Uncle Jim and I send our deepest sympathies to you, your Mom and the Boggs family. Even though we never met your Dad - we know the love you had for him in the stories and memories you shared with us. Your dad raised such a loving and caring son. We wish your family peace and comfort during this difficult time. Love Aunt Sue.
