I'm shocked by this news. Dave and I were the best of friends during high school. We drifted apart after I moved away from Huntington. We spent a lot of time together, with a few other friends. I think the last time I saw, or spoke with him was at my brother's funeral(2004). We had so many good times and memories. Even though we hadn't talked in years, I still would talk about him to some of my friends and family. I remember his lovely Mom making us grilled cheese and Ruffle potato chips(they had be Ruffle). I remember how he always ate his Midway hotdogs, mustard only, and he ate them from the ends. I also remember the big Chow's that they had. As I sit he remember all these memories, I have to say I'm shocked that there has only been one other person sign the Guest Book. John, I think I remember you....you liked right out back of Dave's on the corner of Madison....hope I have that right. Dave, I'm sorry that we didn't stay in touch better. I hope you are at peace. God Bless.

I miss you my friend, I can only hope my prayers are answered and that you are in a much better place, one free from pain, fear & loneliness. Just know that no matter what, my friendship still exists and I hope one day I will find a chair waiting near you when my time comes.
