Mark Richard Hanna

JAN 30, 1960 - DEC 11, 2020

Mark Richard Hanna, known to his friends as "Cowboy", age 60 of Lesage, W.Va. and husband of Deborah Hanna, passed away on Friday December 11, 2020 in the comfort of his home in his favorite recliner. He was born January 30, 1960 in Cabell County to the late Bill Richard Hanna and Norma Jean Ramey Hanna of Huntington, WV who survives him. He grew up in Huntington with his older brother, Robbie (Lisa) Hanna, and younger sister, Tonya Hanna (Phillip) Lawhon. In 1978 he graduated from Barboursville High School where he played football and ran track and he began a more than 40-year career in the family business, Aarons Products. That same year, he married the late Karen Erwin. They had two children: a daughter, Erika Hanna Ryder of Barboursville, W.Va., and a son, Ryan Hanna (Sarah) of Lesage, W.Va. In 1999 he married Deborah Billups Hanna and welcomed her two daughters, Marissa Slack Yingling (Chaz) of Louisville, KY and Kaitlyn Slack-Hanna of Pittsburgh, PA, into his family. Mark was incredibly blessed to have and to love nine grandchildren: Nash Ryder (16), Braylen Ryder (14), MaKenna Ryder (13), Landon Hanna (14), MaKenzie Hanna (12), Andrea Holland (14), Kennedi Carey (7), Kassidy Carey (5), and Mariemma Yingling (2 wks). Mark was also loved by his nieces and nephews: Kristi Seals (Billy), Greg Hanna, Christian Hanna, Anthony Lawhon, Aaron Lawhon (Courtney), and Adam Lawhon, as well as his great nieces and nephews. Mark touched the lives of many through his caring heart, joking spirit, and desire to live a simple life. He was fortunate to have friendships that lasted decades and friends who were like family. He spent most of his years playing or coaching sports, as well as cheering on those he loved as he watched them play. Mark also enjoyed amateur rodeo and attempted boxing, which make for good stories. He enjoyed hunting and fishing, especially in Dolly Sods, W.Va., his favorite place where the Hanna family vacationed since he was an adolescent. The significance of Dolly Sods has been shared through stories and experiences with new generations in the Hanna family, including his children and grandchildren. In the spring, the family will take him back to his favorite spot on the mountain, not far from where he married his wife, Debbie. An avid Titans fan, Mark began supporting the franchise as a teen when they were the Houston Oilers because their head coach wore a cowboy hat that he would remove when playing indoors. Mark enjoyed sharing his love (and sometimes hate) for the Titans with his family, which led to more Titans fans. He watched most games with fellow fans who yelled along with him. To honor the man in the cowboy hat and boots, visitation will be held at Hall Funeral Home and Crematory in Proctorville, OH on Wednesday December 16 from 4pm-6pm. Following visitation, Mike Chapman will conduct the service at 6pm. The family asks that attendees wear masks and socially distance and have reserved several rooms to ensure everyone's safety while celebrating Mark's life. In lieu of flowers and in honor of Mark and his passion for playing and coaching sports and supporting youth sports, the family is asking that donations be sent to Cabell Midland High School (2300 US-60 Ona, WV, 25545) and Huntington High School athletic departments (1 Highlander Way Huntington, WV, 25701). Condolences may be expressed to the family at ehallfuneralhome.com. Visitation HALL FUNERAL HOME

Debbie, Norma, Rob, Tonya, and of course Erica, and Ryan, Cowboy gone, it's just hard to imagine. He was one of the funniest people I have ever known. You just never knew what was going to come out of his mouth. He kept us laughing. Many times the butt of our jokes, he always had a good comeback and a chuckle. He will be missed and remembered by a lot of us with a smile. I still get a laugh about some of his Cowboy-isms. Thinking about you all.

My deepest condolences to the Hanna family. Debbie, my thoughts and prayers are with you, family and the many friends Mark has made an impact on. I'm one of those who was impacted at 12-13 years old, as many of us gathered and met each other for the first time at Beverly Hills Jr High. Mark had an magnetic personality, you just wanted to do what he was doing. He's made so many lives better on this earth just by being Mark. RIP Mark, fly high with the angels! 🙏

To the Hanna family, May great strength and love fill your hearts from the life of Mark. To Debbie, especially I ran into Mark in Walmart sometime in '03 I believe, I walked up to him, had to introduce myself, he remembered me from Beverly Hills Jr High. We talked some, life in general. I told him I was back from Colorado (13yrs) to take care of my parents, he said he loved CO and wanted to maybe live there one day. There were many parts of our discussion...cut to the best part. We talked about girlfriends, partners, wives and he told me he had met his soulmate a few yrs earlier and that he was quite happy with his life, he went on to say your name and ask if I knew you, I replied yes and that's a beautiful thing, for me I've got my horses and that's ok. Lol! So, Debbie, he was talking about you. He will always be by your side. Much love from my Kathryn an me

Ron Oliver lit a candle in honor of Mark.

To Mark's family, I want to express my deepest sympathy on Mark's passing. I was so fortunate to have Mark in my gym class when he attended Hite Saunders. He was the type of young man you don't forget....he always wanted to be a captain of any team...he always took an active part in whatever we did....Mark was always polite and respectful of me and other teachers and adults at the school. Mark always got along with his peers and had many friends because of the way he always treated others respectfully. Funny story about Mark.....we started a unit on square dancing.....like a lot of youngsters, he wanted to shy away from dancing with a girl.....it was funny to watch outgoing Mark Hanna all of a sudden become a very shy Mark Hanna....but the good news....after 2 classes....he was first to get a partner...first to help form a square and helped the other get in place....he was anxious to get started and then loved the square dancing...he may not have admitted it but he was having a great time.....Mark Hanna was a fine young man and I am so proud to have known him and even prouder of his accomplishments in life....I will think about Mark and even though I live in Florida, I will miss him. RIP Mark and thank you for some wonderful memories. God be with Mark's family during this very sad time. Ron Oliver, friend

I don't have the words... I played and ran with Mark....He was the fastest and the toughest. He was an incredible athlete, but an even better person. I always admired his love and devotion to his family... a true man. He will most certainly be missed. My prayers are with you and your family. RIP Cowboy.
