Had a beautiful memory today as I watched the snow peppering down. (No doubt Heaven's confetti for Marshall). I've had the pleasure of being at a few ballroom formals & semi-formals and watched Alice & Marshall dance together. They moved in such unison one knew they were soul mates joined by God. I loved watching that kind of poetry in those two. To watch again someday soon will surely be on my "Heaven's-Event-List." Only this time, we'll all be in our 30's. 😊😊😊

Nobody could be sad around this guy! Happy, full of joy. Never known him to be any other way. Heaven just keep getting sweeter for the rest of us while we wait our turn. May the Lord comfort in a cosmic undeniable way as His word promises He will do as He stays near the broken hearted & rescues those who's spirits are crushed. ~Psalms 34:18 Love Gail McHugh

The only things in life that truly matter are the seeds of love we sow, for we take nothing with us when we go. This earth is just a stepping stone to eternal life. A good man once told me "Life Ain't Over When We Go, It Has Only Just Begun". Richard was a good man with a huge heart. The love he showed will never be forgotten. May Godspeed be with the family.
