Mawmaw Cookie, was and is one of the most amazing people in my life, she always knew what to say to make me feel better. Yes, sometimes we argued, like any other family members. But we always made up, she was one of my best friends and will forever be in my heart and on my mind.

We all loved you very much Aunt Cookie (No Name) you will be dearly missed by everyone of my family, but that was just greed on our part, because we all know you are in Heaven now able to do all the things you have always loved to do and be with all of you loved ones that went there before us.... Most of all you are singing with the Angels and walking on streets of gold with Jesus.....
