God gave us this man. Danny was special person and a wonderful neighbor. He always took the time to come over and talk to KeKe and Skylar, whenever they saw him out back they would run to the fence and start talking to him. Danny was a person who would help you if he could. I loved talking to him and hearing his stories, he was a great family man and friend and loved of his children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, I'm going to miss you Danny.
