Grandma I love you so much. You were always good to me. I remember when we were in foster care you came and visited a couple of times. I am sorry I didnt keep in touch better. I am sad that you are gone but now you can be with the man you love in heaven.

Having to say goodbye is really one of the hardest things someone has to do especially when it's someone who has a kind soul and a heart of gold. You were so special to me and Prudence. You touched our lives in such an amazing way and I feel blessed to have known you. There is no doubt you are an angel now flying high above us. We will miss you but we will never forget you Rose.
