Dear Mary Beth, I have just learned of Ed's passing. I am so very sorry for your loss. I always loved Ed and the way he teased me when I was growing up. How wonderful to have shared 63 years together. You and your family are in my prayers for comfort.

It is with great sadness that I learned about my Uncle Ed's passing. I will fondly remember the times together with his family when I was growing up. While I did not see him as often as an adult, I will treasure the times that I did. One thing that never changed from my childhood interactions with Uncle Ed was his enjoyment in pulling the wool over my eyes (well not just me). He delighted in good naturedly fooling the unsuspecting, including my boyfriend (now husband), TJ when we visited Lake Gunterville. Uncle Ed always had a mischievous twinkle in his eye. Of my more recent memories, I will treasure most, dancing with my Uncle Ed with our two pairs of bad knees. He will be sorely missed by his family. Much love, Denise and TJ

A wonderful man of honor and love of family and memories throughout his life. My neighbor for 19 years. Im thankful that he shared his experience of life with my children. They have the highest respect for him and his wonderful wife Ms Marybeth. We will all miss the love he gave us and his dedication to our neighborhood.

Losing a brother like Ed is heartbreaking because he was such a kind and caring man. I will treasure the wonderful memories I have of Ed both during childhood and as adults with families of our own. It was a comfort to know he was just a phone call away. Not only was he a great brother-in-law to my husband Jim but a terrific fishing buddy as well. They went on many wonderful fishing trips together where they bonded.

John, Andy and Susan....I so so loved your parents, I know all to well the emptiness your heart feels. Ed and Randall Ramey were my Sunday school teachers for years and years, they were instrumental in teaching us everything we knew about the Bible, just the best. Always always a special sweet personal memory he would share with he saw me....he said they would watch me practice when I was trying out for majorette, from your patio. He said he told Mary Beth, I pray she makes it, lolol....just the sweetest man...the last time I saw them was at my Grams funeral, I hugged them so tight! I love them and you three as well, I will hold you all close in prayer and sending you hugs, Lisa Medors Ramsey
