Condolences to the family of my old friend DICK ALLEY..... at least that was the way he was known in my time with him..... He lived about a block down the street from me and I admired the sleek 1959 Plymouth Fury..... with the wing, that he drove. We sang in a quartet that was out of the Jackson Avenue Church of God in Huntington. Rest in peace friend. Charlie Roy

I always considered Dick a good friend. He was a true man of God. Very devoted to his family and those he worked for, a much desired quality today. God has another great soldier.
