Sandy Joseph lit a candle in honor of Sylvia.

Cebert, Nathan and Craig, We mourn with you on the loss of our dear friend, Sylvia. We loved her. Sylvia added so much to our congregation. We were enriched by her life. When Sylvia brought her two little boys to church and Sunday School all those years, she joined to help with all of their activities.

Attached are some photos from our albums taken during the Live Nativity in 2011. Sylvia dressed as one of the Bethlehem Townspeople. We had such fun! The next photo is one of Cebert when he was dressed as one of the Three Kings. Maxine Jenkins and family Sandy, Cheyrl, Marsha, Ron and Ted.

Susan, Doug, Sarah, Nathaniel Weaver lit a candle in honor of Sylvia.

I am so very sorry to hear of her passing. She was a dynamic, witty, hard working, thoughtful, caring family centered, church centered, community centered person. I loved our connections through scouting and her wonderful stories of her background. I still have souvenir's that she brought back from Australia, but the best souvenirs are the memories of her friendship.
