Virginia Rader

NOV 27, 1935 - NOV 10, 2023

Obituary for Virginia Katherine Rader Virginia Katherine Rader, 87, of Proctorville, Ohio, went home to be with the Lord at 7:53 p.m., on Friday, November 10, 2023, at St. Mary's Hospital, Huntington, West Virginia. Jenny was born to Lindsey Stevens and Sadie (Hampton) Stevens. on November 27, 1935, in rural Boyd County, Kentucky. She married William Roth in 1956 and Bill died in 1970. She married John Rader in 1973 and John died in 2003. Jenny was a homemaker, a farm worker alongside her husband, Bill, on their dairy farm, a child care worker, a cheerleading coach of the Waterloo Buckeyes, and assisted with the Gingham and Denim 4H Club. She was a member of the Symmes Valley Freewill Baptist Church. Jenny was one of the sweetest, kindest, gentlest people you would ever want to meet, yet she was as strong as steel. Because of her relentless upbeat demeanor and positive outlook, talking with her made you think you must be in the presence of someone who had lived a charmed life and had never experienced any significant life problems. That would not be correct. As all do, Jenny faced times of struggle and adversity. An acute time of adversity came when a farming accident claimed the life of her husband, Bill, leaving her widowed at the age of 34 with seven children under the age of 17 and another little one on the way. It was her faith in God and inner strength that helped her cope with the loss, take care of her children, and move ahead through life. When asked how she was able to face this time, she would say, "Well, the Lord gives you the strength," Jenny is survived by her eight children: Phillip (Marsha) Stevens of Pedro; Scherry (Stephen) Willis of Wheelersburg; Sandy (Jamie) Lafon of Scottown; Lisa Cardwell of Proctorville; Angie Eaches (fiancé Tim Hatfield) of Ashland, Kentucky; Mike Roth of Pedro; Rhonda (Scott) Fisher of Cincinnati; and Lorie (Frank) Fulks of Scottown; Twenty-one grandchildren, Thirty-five great-grandchildren, and Four great-great-grandchildren. Surviving siblings include Patsy Jean Rankin, Sue Nance, Rod Stevens, Teresa Dillon, Sheila Newman, and Vicki

Jenny was such a beautiful, kind woman. She was a true blessing to everyone who knew her and she had a special way of making everyone feel special and loved.

She was a great role model to her family and to those of us that loved to think of her as part of their family. The world will not be as bright without her in it, but I have no doubt that God was pleased to welcome this good and faithful servant into her reward in heaven. Our thoughts, prayers and love are extended to her wonderful family-Larry, Sharon and Larry NorrisWilliam and Phyllis Kennedy

Thinking about this sweet lady brings back so many wonderful memories !!! From the many times she was a second mom to our three boys and took complete care of them anytime we had to be at Shriners in Lexington. On a more fun note , John and Jenny were our partners on a exciting bowling team !!! We were none any good but boy did we have fun !!! She was a joy to be around and will definitely be missed. So sorry to all the family but her memories will last forever 🙏🙏. God has gained an Angel ❤️ Love you all 😊😊

Virginia, Mom loved Betty (beloved daughter in law) so much, we all did. To have the assurance they are in heaven together in the presence of God gives our hearts great comfort.
