I was saddened to hear Claudia passed. I was fortunate to have met and helped her when I was with Hilliard Lyons. A very nice lady and citizen of our area.

I took my first quilt class from your mother many years ago at her quilt shop. I learned precision, and to do my very best work when making a quilt. She was an excellent teacher. There weren't many local quilt shops back then- I will never forget my first visit to her shop- wonderful experience- such beautiful fabric! I will always be grateful for her firm but encouraging instruction. Quilting has been a wonderful addition to my life .
