James Milton Thompson

NOV 18, 1940 - JUL 13, 2024

James "Jim" Milton Thompson, 83, of Chesapeake, Ohio, peacefully went to be with the Lord while surrounded by family in his home on July 13, 2024. Born November 18, 1940, in Mullens, WV, to the late Joseph Edward Thompson and Effie Grace England-Thompson-James. In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his infant sister, Margie Patricia Thompson and his wife, Linda Marlene Thompson. Surviving to celebrate his life are his four daughters and sons-in-law, Tina (Mike) O'Neill of Little River, SC, Barbie (Randy) Greathouse of Proctorville, OH, Mary Beth Thompson-Wise of South Point, OH, and Kerry (Chris) Fizer of Chesapeake, OH; one sister, Rosie Williams of Arcadia, IN; grandchildren, Christopher (Jessica) Thompson, Bradley (Jenny) Thompson, Mark (Courtney) Dailey, McKenzie (Austin) Ruggles, Taylor Wise, Nicholas Carrico, Shawn Carrico, and Zachary Wise; seven great-grandchildren, Jennavieve Thompson, Alexander Thompson, Braxton Dailey, Brielle Dailey, Beckham Dailey, Grayson Thompson, Ellie Jo Ruggles, and special friend, Jeri Ripley. Besides being the best dad his girls could ever ask for, Jim was well-known by family, friends, colleagues, and the community as a hard-working man who took pride in his work. There wasn't a job that Jim could not do. He was a general contractor, electrician, plumber, and man of all trades. Working was definitely one of Jim's hobbies. Fishing was another passion of Jim's. He told incredible stories of his fishing adventures across America with friends and family. An avid Bluegrass music fan, Jim shared his love of music with everyone he met. Throughout his life, he had the pleasure of becoming personal friends with country, bluegrass, and gospel artists. Jim was a member of the Proctorville Masonic Lodge #550 F&AM, a 32nd degree Scottish Rite Mason, an El Hasa Shriner, Kentucky Colonel, and a Proctorville Eastern Star #257, O.E.S. Jim believed in the generosity each entity possesses. Above everything else, Jim loved the Lord and trusted Jesus as his personal savior in 1980. He was a member of First Sheriff Jeff Lawless lit a candle in honor of James.

I was so fortunate to become friends with Jim many years ago. He was always so kind and willing to help anyone who needed it. His laugh and smile were infectious. I am so sad that he is no longer with us but happily confident that he is in Heaven today. My condolences to all his family. Jim, RIP my friend! Love you buddy!!! Sheriff Jeff Lawless
