Mom, thank you so much for all that you have done to make this world a fun, loving, caring, kind place to live. We are looking through the many photos that capture precious moments. You and Dad did an amazing job. Thank you so much. We love you and will miss you until we can be with you again. We know you are getting to see loved ones that are ahead of us on this journey. Your spirit will be with us in everything we do. You've passed the torch to us and we'll carry it proudly. Love you so very much
