Heather Taylor lit a candle in honor of Irene.

My Grandmother was a light that exists in every memory in my head. She was strong, willful, opinionated, passionate, talented, smart, creative, thoughtful, loving, and kind. She could light up a room when she smiled and spread so much joy to those around her. We all had a special place in her heart and her memory will live on because she will always have a special place in our hearts. Life is fleeting but love is forever.

Loved to hang with Irene. We frequented Ponderosa buffets, and church. What laughs and memories we shared. I miss her quirky sense of humor. She had a love for her grandchildren. She will be sadly missed.

Debbie Clary lit a candle in honor of Irene.

Debbie Clary Irene and I met in 1991. We were prayer partners. We went to the church 2-3 times a week . Sometimes more if one of us had a bad day or if she was feeling bad. Seemed like it always helped.. I remember when her grandchildren were born and how proud she was of all of them. She was a good friend not only to me but also my family. She was there for all of us. I love you Irene. And will miss you. Say hello to my mom for me when you see her.

I remember Irene from High School. She was a quiet girl. She had a smile all the time. I guess that is what I remember her most for. Then we reconnected on Facebook. Rest in Peace Irene, you fought a good fight and won the prize, sing with the angles. Patti Johnson Woodrum
