Not too long ago, I met David at VFW Post 6878 and have listened to his prayers at our meetings. My heart is touched by this man's faith, caring and Love. I hope he and his family and friends feel God's closeness, peace and Love in this time of need in Gail's passing. I hadn't met Gail, but if God put the two of them together, I imagine both of them have been a blessing to many. So sorry for your loss here on this earth.

The Hilderbrandt sisters. I am with Doris (mom) right now, and she wanted everyone to know how much she loves her sisters. She wants to thank the dear Lord for sharing all these years of memories.

Went to church with her and the best memory I had was when I got to sing at her and David's wedding. I will never forget that. She was such a wonderful person. RIP Gail will miss you.
