Sue and Beau, I am so very sorry. Your mom was always friendly and talkative when I would run into her. She remembered that I was your 6th grade teacher at Chesapeake. She was always sharing news about you two and your children. The last place I saw her was the Ashland Mall where she was walking with your dad. She was a sweet woman and cared deeply for you. Again, please accept my sincere condolences and let your dad know how sorry I am. I regret not being able to stop by to see you both today.
