I will miss you so much Larry. You was like a father/ brother/ best friend. You was so much more than just a friend. We worked together. We hung out we would go to Lowe's more than any contractor I know. We spent so much time running for parts plumbing electrical drywall you name it. We did it The last big job we did was 59.9 yards of concrete in my driveway. It made us love drywall or electrical work more. lol. I will miss you Larry until I see you again brother. I love you. Tia is what me and my best friend did . My driveway.
