Many thanks to the caring doctors, nurses, staff, the immeasurable kindness and concern of Brads co-workers in the lab at Kings Daughters Medical Center, and the doctors and nurses at the Cleveland Clinic. Jennifer had a kind, loving selfless heart, loved to talk, lead the choir and sing Gods Praises, study her bible, read to Sam and sing to him, take Sam to church, travel on small trips with Sam and Brad, have date nights with Brad and spend time with her family and Brads family. She loved to be an inspiration to her fellow pink sisters that were diagnosed always wanting to give them hope. She will be forever missed here more than she could ever know. She was an inspiration to all who knew her. But we will see her again in Heaven with a new body and no pain. We Love you to the moon
