With Maureen's passing a bright light has gone out in my world and that of her children and grand children. She was at once, funny, vivacious and full of life. Quick to laugh at or tell a joke even about herself. What I will miss most is her friendship. Even if we had not spoken in a while when we finally did it was as if no time had passed at all. I know that right now she is having a reunion with her mom and sister and stepdad and all the others who have passed over the years. Just a wonderful lady and a great cousin and friend. R.I.P.

Maureen was a great friend to my mother Bonnie. She was there with me for my Mom's final days and I will never forget her for that. I'm truly sorry for your loss.
