Edward 'Ed' Lee Bowling

FEB 14, 1940 - MAY 31, 2020

Edward "Ed" Lee Bowling, 80, of Proctorville, OH departed this life for his heavenly home on Sunday, May 31, 2020. Ed was born February 14, 1940 in Flat Top, WV to the late Fred Edward and Nancy Jane Bowling. Ed obtained a degree in civil engineering from WVU in 1963. He began his career with the C & O Railroad Co., and after assuming other corporate engineering positions he transitioned to the coal industry as a self-employed coal broker. Ed and his wife Dolores were blessed with the opportunity to travel abroad and particularly enjoyed their two trips to the Holy Land in Israel. Ed was a very capable gardener who generously shared some of the best tomatoes you ever ate with family and neighbors. Ed loved animals, particularly dogs, and often shared fond memories about his faithful companions "Lady" and "Bear". Ed had a real passion and gift for working on cars. He completely rebuilt two vintage Porsches and a host of other vehicles he owned over the years. If Ed wasn't working on his car, you would generally find him assisting his neighbors in repairing theirs. Ed was a soft spoken, gentle, and kind man who enjoyed being around people. Ed had the rare gift of listening more than speaking, and he always looked for the good in all people. His soft wit and joyful laugh would light up a room. Ed loved the Lord and his family and will be dearly missed by all. Ed is survived by his beloved wife of 58 years, Dolores Eloise Bowling; two daughters, Amber K. (Jeff) Ball; and Robin G. (Chris) Blackburn; seven grandchildren, Grace E. (William) Harmanson; Evan D. (Natalie) Ball; Parker L. (Taylor) Ball; Noah E. Blackburn; Carson M. (Christa) Ball; Jonah E. Blackburn; and Danae L. Ball; four great grandchildren, Josiah Harmanson; Ella Ball; Ava Ball; and Ellis Ball. Ed is also survived by his brother, Robert (Theresa) Bowling. Funeral services will be 2:00 p.m., Friday, June 5th at Hall Funeral Home in Proctorville, OH. Visitation will commence one hour before the service. Internment will follow at Spring Hill Cemetery in Portia Cherny lit a candle in honor of Edward.

I saw Ed. Bowling be a father figure to my son Chris, who is married to Ed and Dolores daughter Robin. He was ever kind, generous and encouraging with good council. So, I say thank you.

William And Gloria Hayslip lit a candle in honor of Edward.

To Ed's family, we are so very sorry for your loss. Ed was a good friend and great neighbor. When my parents lived in our home he was always there to lend a helping hand. After my Father passed, Ed would often take my Mother to various meetings and bring her home, always with a cheerful heart. Ed was so kind to accept our request to be a Pallbearer at my Mothers funeral. We will greatly miss him in our neighborhood and our special prayers go out to Deloris and the family.
