Losing a love one too soon is very devastating. May your many fine memories of Savannah and loving words comfort family and friends during this very difficult time and the days ahead (Isaiah 57:15)

Karen Cardoso lit a candle in honor of Savannah.

I heard your voice in the wind today and I turned to see your face; The warmth of the wind caressed me as I stood silently in place. I felt your touch in the sun today as its warmth filled the sky; I closed my eyes for your embrace and my spirit soared high. I saw your eyes in the window pane as I watched the falling rain; It seemed as each raindrop fell it quietly said your name. I held you close in my heart today it made me feel complete; You may have died...but you are not gone you will always be a part of me. As long as the sun shines... the wind blows... the rain falls... You will live on inside of me forever for that is all my heart knows. I Love and Miss You so much, You will Always be my baby.. You will always be my Heart and Soul... Till I see your sweet face again.. ❤️❤️❤️

While words fail to capture the pain of losing a loved one, we look forward to the time when words will fail to capture the joy of having our heavenly Father return your dear Savannah. John 5:28, 29 '28 Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out...'
