Deborah Lee Burcham

MAY 24, 1959 - OCT 30, 2020

Deborah Lee Burcham, 61, of Proctorville, Ohio entered the arms of her Heavenly Father on Friday, October 30, 2020. She was the loving wife of 43 years to Stephen Dale Burcham. She was born May 24, 1959 daughter of Rosa Lowe of Proctorville, Ohio and the late Hubert George Lowe. In addition to her father she was preceded in death by her mother-in-law, Margery "Betty" Elizabeth Burcham. She graduated Fairland High School in 1977. In her early career, Debbie worked at the State Treasurer's Office processing sales tax returns and went on to establish with her husband Stephen their accounting practice in Huntington, WV and worked the daily operations for the past 39 years. In addition to her husband Stephen and her mother Rose, Debbie is survived by two daughters, Jodi (Evan) Hall of Proctorville, OH and Jessica (Jared) Fox of Huntington, WV; she was affectionately known as "Mimi" to her four grandchildren that she adored, Isla and Elora Hall, and Thomas and Ella Fox; brother Bobby (Pam) Lowe of Corning, AR; father-in-law Dale (Brenda) Burcham; brothers-in-law Scott (Cathy) Burcham; Shawn (Angie) Burcham; sister-in-law Margie Burcham; special aunt Jean Street and numerous nieces and nephews, family and friends. Debbie enjoyed spending time with her family. She has always been a bright light of giving for everyone around her. She loved to share that light through cooking, feeding her family and friends as a symbol of communion and nourishment. She and Stephen traveled to many football games over the years to cheer for the Ohio State Buckeyes. She was also a member of New Hope United Methodist Church, loved to garden and bird watch. Debbie will be remembered for being a selfless and caring wife, mother, grandmother, daughter, and friend. In lieu of flowers, and in honor of Debbie's love of the performing arts, the family would request a contribution to a permanent dance scholarship at 4th Avenue Arts Performing Arts Center. This scholarship will be awarded annually, in honor of Debbie, to a student who would otherwise be unable to study the arts. Donations can Raynell Napier lit a candle in honor of Deborah.

Deborah was so good to me on my first day at Finley Chapel on Big Paddy Creek Road. She came and asked me if she could take my baby girl downstairs to the nursery. She took my Kristen out of my arms and took her downstairs..This allowed me to concentrate on the pastor and his message. I will be forever grateful to Deborah and have always had a soft spot for her in my heart.
