Such a beautiful woman who raised a wonderful family. We were so fortunate to have her son Jack, marry into our family. When we visited with Mrs. Kessick last, we reminded her of how her coconut cake recipe was being used several times each year. It is a family favorite for us! She was an amazing cook and my sister remembers her making a special birthday cake for her when we visited. She was a young girl, but still remembers the delicious cake and the sweet woman who made it for her. Mrs. Kessick was the epitome of class, beauty, dignity, a loving Mother and Wife, and a Christian, just to name a few. We loved her and we love her son Jack, very much too. Fly high, Mrs. Kessick. You definitely earned your angel wings and we will miss you very much. God bless you and your family.
