Don Collins lit a candle in honor of Johnny.

The fondest memories of my childhood are the summer days we spent with May and Johnny at Lake Forest swimming, hiking, and fishing. Vacations to the Smokey Mountains. Taking us for a weekend before Christmas to help us shop for family gifts. May and Johnny were always a second mom and dad for a hard-working single mother raising two misbehaving boys. They loved and treated my daughter, Kelli, more than any grandniece could want for. The random, surprise visits with toys for my son, Dillon. Johnny was a great man and will be deeply missed.

Julie Collins lit a candle in honor of Johnny.

Ever since I joined the family 23 years ago, Johnny was always loving and kind to me. I loved to hear how good he and May were to Don and his brother as kids. He loved Kelli and Dillon dearly, always spoiling them and supporting them in everything. Johnny, you will be missed.
