Bunny Siemers lit a candle in honor of Florence.

Alice was my husband's step mom, although he regarded her so much more. Alice was sweet, caring, and full of life. I remember her and I dancing in the kitchen one Christmas. Smiling and laughing, a beautiful woman. I am so glad I got to know her. Through trial and loss she remained a pillar of strength and fortitude. I know she is with my husband's father, Bill, the love of her life. Wrap yourself in his loving arms. Rest in peace dear friend. Although I can't share this with Steve, I know he wishes you the same. Always in our hearts. Steve and Bunny Siemers.

Marci White lit a candle in honor of Florence.

Mom, you were a beacon of light to all of our family. We love you and will miss you more than you could have ever known. We are so glad the Lord took you home peacefully and pain-free. Now you are with Dad and Mickie, as you've wanted for so long.
