Annabell Thomas lit a candle in honor of Rusty.

It's me dad Annabell I'll miss all the nights we spent watching TV together or the long talks on the porch you were my best friend and always will be you cared deeply for others you showed me how your supposed to love someone. I still sometimes see something I know you'd like my first thought is "I have to tell dad he'll love this ." But then I remember your gone. I'm starting to forget your face and your voice I don't know why I love you dad.
