Christina Neal lit a candle in honor of Charles.

Charlie, I am so saddened by your passing. You were a good person and you are alive in my memory. You were a good husband to me and supportive father to our daughter Jaeda. I have so many wonderful memories of you, your laughter, your pranks and most of all your kindness. I will love you always.

Jacqueline Turbeville lit a candle in honor of Charles.

I have many memories of my cousin Charles when we were growing up. Memories of him at Mawmaw's beating me at games every time we played at the dining room table. His laughter and smile as he pranked me into unknowingly eating fried squirrel smothered in gravy. There is great comfort knowing that he is with his Heavenly Father and all who passed before him fully receiving a LOVE he never knew here on earth. God Bless Charles and all who loved him.
