I am heartbroken to hear of the loss of Michalle. I will always remember how she, Tommie and Susan welcomed our fish-out-of-water family into their neighborhood when I was a little girl, demonstrating true West Virginia hospitality and beginning friendships that we have always valued highly. My heart goes out to you, Tommie and Susan, and I pray that we will all meet again in eternity, where tears are no more.

My last memory of Michalle was many years ago. My granddaughter, Kellee, was visiting from VA Beach, VA, and had attended Vacation Bible School at Fifth Avenue Baptist Church. When I came to pick Kellee up, Michalle and her children were sitting on the floor doing an activity with Kellee and Michalle recognized me and we had a nice conversation. She was a lovely woman and mother.
