"For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all. So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen, since what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal." 2 Corinthians 4:17-18 (NIV)

I grew up, going to church at Fairland, Southern Baptist. I loved Pastor Dave, and he was, and still is the all-time best pastor who has ever lived. I loved Patsy and Dave. My grandparents were close friends with them both. I visited my grandmothers grave today, Alice. I didn't know she was buried right next to Pastor Dave and Patsy. I didn't even know Patsy had passed away until today. Patsy was always a positive person and a great Christian woman. She was great company to be around. She will be truly missed.

I loved you so! Only met you a few times and we bonded immediately. Hanging with you at church, the Elvis movie, playing cards, talking girl talk and especially about our Lord! Heartfelt condolences and prayers for your loving family! I dedicated an Elvis song to you last night during my performance. You will be missed.

Patsy was a beautiful, Christian lady, and when we met we had an automatic connection with each other as if we had known her our entire lives. She was such a blessing to spend time with, and we were truly blessed to love and be loved by her. Praying for her sons, daughter in laws, grandchildren and great grandson, her "scrappy sisters" as well as all of her many friends!

Patsy was one of the most amazing people I ever met! She loved with her whole being! She was kind, hilarious, sincere and her light shown always! Patsy was like a second mom to us! She always had time to help us whether it be a phone call, a ride, a vote of encouragement- especially prayer! All of those plays she wrote for church have created lifelong friendships. The choir, Sunday School teacher, Acteens, Southern Baptist Convention meetings (teens too) ... the list goes on and on. No doubt her home is Heaven now - and hopefully singing with mom. I have four brothers because she loved us as her own - as she did for so many. What a beautiful person and what a wonderful privilege to know her. She was simply amazing!

I loved being around Patsy. She was so entertaining and fun to be with. Her love for movies was such a big hobby for her and I loved going with her when we had the opportunity. As her health was failing and her stamina was fading you might look over and see her sound asleep in the movie theater. That always made me smile. Her love for God was what started our friendship. We were in a ladies small group bible study. We shared prayer requests and just life in general. I always felt loved by her. That's a gift. RIP our friend. Until we meet again in heaven. Your friend, Rosie

Such a wonderful soul. Full of love for her family and friends. She had the biggest smile and gave the best hugs. She will be remembered as someone you were glad you got to be around , even for a small amount of time. She'll be missed by all that knew her.

Patsy was personality plus...her joy of life and love of things from Elvis to last-minute church cantatas (if you know, you know lol) was as natural and unforced as sunshine. I will always remember her sweet love for myself and family back in years when we needed it so desperately. She added the feeling of "home" to church when we were there. She's now really Home and I'm glad for her, not the least because she's reunited with Dave and her granddaughter...seeing Jesus face to face! See you in the Morning Patsy!
