I love Lindy Kay so much. She was more of an auntie to me than my cousin. I had so much respect for her. She always stay the same. The love she had for her family was unconditional. I'm so thankful for the last few years coming home to Huntington. Lindy was always with us. We visit family, we ate. We laugh and to here all the story's she told me about my father was priceless. We love you Lindy. Rest peacefully Beautiful. You would never been forgotten. Thank you for the talks, Thank you for the love you always gave to us. Your cousin/niece. Michelle
