I loved my Uncle Mickey! Almost every single good memory from my childhood in West Virginia is filled with my Uncle Mickey taking me and Andy and David Lee across the street or next door to go swimming, the 500x or more that I spent the night at his house. We rode dirt bikes and snow mobiles. I'll never forget Mickey and Ann having the coolest house and Land ever! Swimming in the creeks or the awesome 4th of July get togethers we had. I can even remember the last time I saw Mickey at the Golden Corral when I was in the ARMY visiting my Dad! Mickey Cox was an awesome person and my life is better for have knowing such a great man. I will always think of you, you are never forgotten. MY deepest apologies to Everyone left behind. I love all you guys! I miss you guys! Sorry for your loss.
