So sorry to hear about Mrs. Doris she was such a special lady. Her coconut cream pie which I never got any because it would always gone and her yummy apple pie. She had a heart of gold . I have a painting that she gave me and I will always cherish it. Praying for her family I know she cherished Kara.Blessings on your family

I Loved Aunt Doris she was always so wonderful to me. I got to spend the night with her and share some time with her several years ago. In that I am so thankful. I'm glad she had Tressa next door to check on her for so long. We were lucky she was able to live life in her home for so so long. She was loved and she will be remembered. We will see her in heaven someday I take comfort in knowing she knew Jesus!
