R.I.P papaw. Thank you for your service to this country. My favorite memories of us is when I was younger. We would have small jam sessions to George Thurgood and we would laugh our heads off at the three stooges. Going to miss you.

I'm going to miss you papaw. My favorite memories is when I was younger he would put me on his shoulders and walk around the neighborhood, there was a tree I would reach up and wrap my legs around his neck, then I would pee on his head, we would go home and I would say agin pawpaw agin. Another memory that I will always remember is when I was about 4 or 5 he got pulled over for running a stop sign and I said STOP means stop papaw I'm telling grandma when we get home, the cop told he it sounded like he would be in a lot of trouble when he got home so he just got a warning.
