A man of pure love and joy. He would light up a room with his smile and laugh. His love for his wife, family, country and pets seeped from his being. Tom's leatherwork showed his incredible talents for the craft. I have and always will treasure the pieces he's made for me. His joy of dancing was enjoyed by all who've watched them glide across the dance floor. I have no doubt he's dancing in Heaven. Sending my deepest condolences to Mitzi, family and friends.
