Our life story on earth here has ended, and like you always said , we are just running a race. You go and start a new chapter of our lives in Heaven and when the Lord calls me home, again we will be together. 43 years is a long time, ever since we were just kids we have been together. I'm so sorry you had to suffer so much and be confined in that chair, but now you are free and able to be walking and happy and pain free. I Love you old man, and keep the fires burning and just be happy. Your babies sure miss ya and love ya. We are all good. ♥♥

A place in my heart will always be missing. You were (are) such an important person in my life and my favorite neighbor. I will forever be thankful for every second I got to grow up with you and your family. For every memory and story I get to tell my own kid.I'll miss our long hangouts in the garage,Watching you tend meticulously to the yard decorations you held so much pride in, and so so much more. Thank you for having my back and being there when no one else was. Rest easy Dean.

I have nothing but wonderful memories of my Uncle Dean. He always treated me like a little princess. He was good to me and he was a very good brother to my mother. I pray she was there to greet him when he arrived Home
