Q: What will you never forget about Randall? A: I will personally never forget the morning that he convinced me to go fishing in the early morning hours on the Ohio river. I remember we got the boat unloaded and backed away from the dock and looked around to notice we was in the real life movie the fog. I will never forget the look on his face as we saw a light ahead that was indeed a tug boat and he simply looked over and said we might not make it. This was the very moment in which he was calm that I was wondering how I allowed him to convince me this was a good idea and was looking to bail off. That was exactly who Randall was a calm cool collected friend who always no matter what would drop everything to be there whenever you needed him. I will forever miss our porch conversations and our talks about life. I hope your looking down from heaven knowing that you were loved by everyone. Until we meet again one day Love Mark.

Q: What will you never forget about Randall? A: I will always remember Randy. He was so special. He liked to make you laugh to stir stuff up just to see you smile. Randy never met a stranger. He would talk to someone like he knew them forever. He was there for me whenever I needed a repairs on my house, my families good and bad times or just a friend anytime.I hope I was as helpful friend to him when he was in need -as he was to me. He always said I was. But he liked to help others more than ask for them to help him.I'm so sorry Josh Sarah and Brayden.He loved you all always. My prayers are with you all and the rest of his family .If anything ever I can do. Or just need to talk . I'm here for you.The pics really only one I have. He was not much on the selfies or pictures taken of him.This is at work. Joking around with Rickey. Having fun and enjoying life.
