There are so many memories that I have of my aunt Hope! One memory I have was when I was like 6 or 7 years old, she was a waitress and whenever she would come home and we were there at the trailer I would sit in the floor and polish her white tennis shoes she wore for her! To me it was like I was really doing something grown up and helping and I believe aunt Hope thought, "They look like crap but at least I don't have to do it!" She worked on her feet most of her life so when she came home her legs and feet would hurt so bad that she just wanted to sit and relax and I look back now and think I helped her to be able to do so! You are always loved and will always be missed Aunt Hope!!!
