Mildred was a very special lady! Definitely a friend to all she met, but I was blessed to call her my cousin. Always joy and laughter was felt when you were around Mildred. After losing her husband, Bob and daughter, Deborah, life was more difficult for her. Even with losing two very important parts of her life, she still tried to be the same Mildred, who brought those around her happiness. This world would be a better place with more who loved life as she did. May she rest in peace and may her family feel God's love surrounding them at this time.

We are so sorry for your loss. My parents loved being her and Bob's neighbors and friends for the last 50 years. I remember as a kid all the neighbors gathering on mom's porch to chat and Bob would play his guitar and they would all sing. In later years, she and my mom would call each other every day and work the scramble puzzle in the paper together. Sending you thoughts and prayers during this difficult time from my dad, James Haskins Sr. and the Chatterton and Bailey families.
