When my daughter Nikki was about 6 weeks old, Betty & Jack became her babysitters. We became great friends & did about everything together as a combined family. Nikki's father was not in her life & Jack stepped right in to that position! He became her "Daddy Jack " He taught her everything a dad is suppose to, play ball, fish, tie shoes & on & on. He was the best . He loved when we would be out anywhere, I of course was mommy, Betty was mommy Betty & Jack , daddy Jack . We would always have people looking at us & pointing. He got such a kick out of that. - - we will miss you Daddy Jack
