Little sister, I never imagined you would leave so soon. I can still remember what a sweet child you were. You were loved by so many. I will miss your texts with hearts and messages of love that you sent to me. I Love you so much.

My sweet mommy, I hope you know how much I love you and will miss you always. I would do anything to talk to you, laugh with you, or above all, hug and kiss you just one last time. There's nothing I wouldn't have done for you, and I know the same goes in the other direction. Never in my life have I had to go a moment without knowing I was loved because of you, and I know how special that is. Though I'm heartbroken that you're no longer with us, and hate the thought of having to go the rest of my own life without you here, a piece of me is thankful you can no long feel pain or suffering, and that you're reunited with your own mom and dad after many years without them. 26 years wasn't enough, but I think I could've spent eons with you and it still wouldn't have been enough for me. I love you, I miss you, and I thank you for the knowledge, the lessons, the laughter, the love, and so much more. To know you was to love you, and I loved you dearly. We'll find each other again, and it'll be the happiest moment of my existence. Until then, you're with me in my heart, my thoughts, my dreams, and everything else I do and am. Thank you for being my mommy. I love you lots and I'll love you always. Rest easy, you deserve it. ❤️

You and your sisters and Bud and Linda were my family before I knew you could have family that wasn't blood. That was so very many years ago. And once I came back home, you were always there for me. You were still my family. My prayers and all my love go with your family now. You were definitely a blessing...

Cricket Cole sent a virtual gift in honor of Melanie.

Melanie was a very good friend to me. More like a sister she was always there when I needed a friend to talk to or a shoulder to cry on. I will miss her very much. It was like she knew when I was having a bad day cause she would always send me a tic-tok that would make me laugh and remind me that she was always there for me and loved me. Now she is in Heaven with my Dad watching over me. They are my Angels
