My mom Sylvia, her cousin and Patty were good friends through their lives. I met Patty a couple of times at the cemetery in Miller where mom is buried. Patty's middle name is Ruth, my grandmother was Ruth & I have a cousin with that name as well. I remember spending a week with the Lewis' in 1967 when my uncle passed in Oklahoma. There were 5 of us girls. One night we were having a sleep over in a tent in their front yard. Patty was always fun to spend time with just talking. She did foster many children, one of them being my now 50+ cousin Tommy Burcham who was adopted by my Aunt Carol Burcham. Forever grateful for that. Rest Well sweet soul, you will be well remembered.
