To the Walls family, I don't know Mr. Walls myself, but my husband, Joe Pemberton (who passed away last year) spoke very highly of Mr. Walls. He was Joe's bus driver many years ago. Sending prayers for peace and comfort to the family of a man who is remembered fondly by a former bus student, Joe Pemberton. Prayers from Joe's wife. Debbie Pemberton

So sorry to see this for another co-worker from the Huntington Publishing Company newspapers. Jack worked with me at the H-D in the earlier years as a pressman when I was a teletype operator in the composing room and I also worked with his son, Jackie at the newspaper. I send prayers to the family that God will give comfort and peace during this sad time. Betty Lou Muncey

I will miss in the security office. I know there was never a better security guard than you and I know I cannot fill your shoes in that room. But I will be there as long they will let me. Your brother in Christ . see you in heaven Roger Oh yeah Marshall University plays Georgia this Saturday. I am going to try to go to Marshall's first game on Sept 6th against Missouri.
